The Infinite Glade

James Dashner

The Infinite Glade* is the explosive finale of The Maze Cutter trilogy—and the epic conclusion to The Maze Runner saga.

War has finally ignited. The Remnant Nation is done waiting. Their mission: destroy the Godhead and everything she stands for. But as Sadina and the islanders fight to protect the Goddess—who claims to be their only hope for Evolution's survival—the battle reveals unfathomable truths leaving behind devastation that will change the islanders' future forever.

Determined to save their friends, Isaac and Ximena—along with Old Man Frypan and Jackie—struggle to find their way back to the others when two strangers intercept them, throwing everything they thought they knew about the Cure into doubt. Following the strangers into the unknown, Frypan unearths the shocking truth behind the Cure and the secrets so many have died to protect. But what they uncover is only the beginning.

The descendants must decide between risking their lives and the safety of those they love back home to expose the painful truth behind the maze trials, or walk away from history's darkest secrets and let the truth remain buried in the Glade forever.

Do Not Enter! 4

Operation...School Trip!

Caroline Héroux

After coming close to death (well, almost!), Charlie is getting back on track, and he can — FINALLY! — write in his notebook again. Between a mascot, a 99-year-old great aunt, Melia (impossible not to mention her), William, Justine, too much popcorn, and a school trip to Boston, Charlie has absolutely NO TIME... uh, to waste!

In this FULLY LOADED new notebook, we will learn things even Charlie can't say out loud... such as... hum... owing a favor to Melia! (no comment).

The Summer Hideaway

An Uplifting, Feel-Good Summer Romance

Jenny Hale

From the USA Today bestselling author of The Magic of Sea Glass, with over one million copies of her books sold, comes an absolutely beautiful summer romance, perfect for fans of Sheila Roberts, Jill Shalvis, and Debbie Macomber.

Alice Emerson and her best friend Sasha Miller have decided to swap inland living for the picturesque beaches of the Outer Banks. They pour everything they have into launching an ice cream shop in the little cottage on the beach where Alice spent blissful childhood summers with her grandfather.

As Alice and Sasha add color to the walls of the shop, their fresh new life begins to take shape, and love is the last thing on Alice's mind. But she keeps running into the mysterious Jack Murphy, and finds herself falling for his golden-boy charm and warm smile.

With everything on her plate, Alice tries not to think he could be the one for her. Jack's only there for the season, and Alice has had her fair share of heartbreak.

Then she discovers an old locket tucked away that contains a family secret that turns Alice's world upside down and might just threaten the future of the ice cream shop.

An uplifting summer romance about the power of friendship, uncovering family secrets, and the beauty of falling in love by the sea. If you loved the TV movies based on Jenny's books, and you're searching for more heartwarming stories, look no further!

Endorsement

"Touching, fun-filled, and redolent with salt air and the fragrance of summer, this seaside tale is a perfect volume for most romance collections."

RYU

Akira Higashiyama

RYU, hailed as the best work in the last twenty years, is based on a high schooler witnessing the death of his grandfather in the 1970s Taiwan. The thriller centers on the high schooler's journey of finding out the truth behind the murder in the time of the strict and unstable Taiwan.

RYU has a smooth flow and a well-knit plot, and deftly kneads together mystery, fantasy, and realism. Shrouded in the depressive atmosphere of a bygone era, it has been hailed in Japan as one of the premier works of the past two decades. The protagonist is a young, frivolous high-school student who witnesses the brutal death of his grandfather. He decides to track down the truth behind the murder.

The book vividly describes life in a closed political system, echoing discussions on transitional justice in Taiwan society in recent years. The Taiwanese writer Hsiao Yeh has gone so far as to call this book "a gift from heaven." This alludes to the fact that such subject material was long left as unexplored territory in Taiwan's literary circle, and that the book's appearance now satisfies the needs of the times.

The author's family, originally from Taiwan, moved to Japan when the author was nine years old. This background gives the book literary significance as a story by a writer who could be categorized as an immigrant author. But more important still are the natural flow and humor of the writing and its thrilling story. Combining a requiem to his father's and grandfather's generations with a coming-of-age story, this is a remarkable bildungsroman with universal appeal.

Do You Remember Marilyn Monroe?

The Life and Times of Norma Jeane Mortenson

Chris Edwards

Created for the reminiscent reader, the Do You Remember...? Series takes you back to the good ol' days. Share in the history of beloved icons and learn more about their rise to fame and the times in which they lived. This is the second in the series that began with Do You Remember Elvis Presley?

Born Norma Jeane Mortenson, Marilyn Monroe was an American model, actress, and icon. Discovered while working in a factory during WWII, she soon began a successful career as a pin-up model. By the early 50s she was on her way to a successful movie career as both a comedic and dramatic actor. In 1953 she was caught up in scandal relating to nude photos she had taken years earlier, but that scandal only seemed to help her career. She co-starred with some of the most famous actors of her day. Her high profile husbands: baseball legend Joe DiMaggio and playwright Arthur Miller, only added to her public persona. From the first cover of Playboy Magazine to her birthday salute to John F. Kennedy, Marilyn Monroe could always steal the show.

Yet, this book is so much more than just a recap of an American icon's life. Do You Remember Marilyn Monroe? is also a look back at the times in which she lived and how America came to know and love the legend.

The Wall Falls, A Woman Rises, a Memoir

How a U.S. Tech Entrepreneur Broke the Glass Ceiling and Helped Modernize Latvia

Dagnija Lacis

In this compelling memoir, Dagnija shares stories and strategies as she built her successful career in IT, a man's world, and became the first woman line VP for Unisys.

"Dagnija Lacis' memoir is a story of courage, upheaval, and persistence ... Her transitions, first navigating through a male-dominated IT world, then across an ocean to a country that was emerging from fifty years of Communism are noteworthy. Watching through her memoir, we see her tenacity and resilience when confronted with obstacles. The way she always finds a path forward is inspirational for us all."

—Lynn Miller, author of Sweating Bullets, historical fiction

About the Author

Dagnija Lacis, born in 1943 in Latvia, was forced to flee there in 1944. After five years in a displaced persons camp in Germany, she immigrated with her family to Indianapolis. Dagnija graduated cum laude from Butler University with a B.S. in Chemistry and Mathematics.

She and her husband, Andris, have two children and live in West Bloomfield, Michigan.

The Greek Pyramids

The Myth That Was Real

Robert Temple

The Greek Pyramids is an exciting new perspective on the origins of Greek civilization. The pyramids of Greece pose one of the greatest mysteries of Greek archaeology.

Now using modern dating methods, we know that they were constructed between 2500 and 2400 BC and that they are related to the prehistoric site of Lerna near Argos.

Images dating from the late 18th century up until the present day are shown, with a summary of the many books and articles about them since the early 19th century.

Their mini-pyramids acted as symbolic statements of 'who we are and where we came from' by the new arrivals.

Transitioning Your Federal Resume to Private Industry

Are You at the Fork of the Road?

Kathryn Troutman • Illustrator: Brian Moore

This book includes 7 case studies with 5-page Federal resume and 2-page Private industry resumes. The book has samples on how to use Chat GPT for keywords for your new 2-page resume. See samples of Cover Letters and LinkedIn "About" and "skills". This is the resume format you need for job search after government. Using Chat GPT keywords are critical for success with HR Recruiters for interviews and new jobs. Learning how to use the keywords in the 2-page resume! Critical for success in getting interviews! The sample resumes are for current Federal employees who got the "Fork in the Road" Memo.

Bob Uecker

The Funniest Man in Baseball

Lew Freedman

This book is a collection of the many funny stories and quotes from The Funniest Man in Baseball. Bob Uecker received the moniker of "Mr. Baseball" by none other than late night TV legend Johnny Carson. Uecker would appear on many a late-night broadcast, but he is best known by the Milwaukee faithful as the voice of the Brewers. He served the fans for more than fifty seasons broadcasting from 1971 to his last on-air performance October 3, 2024.

To America in general Bob is fondly remembered for his Miller Lite TV Commercials. "I must be in the front row" became a well-known meme before there were memes. Over his decades as pitcher, broadcaster, ball player, and television actor Bob's quick wit, deadpan humor, and general good nature always shined through.

The Maze Cutter

James Dashner

Seventy-three years after the events of THE DEATH CURE, when Thomas and other immunes were sent to an island to survive the Flare-triggered apocalypse, their descendants have thrived. Sadina, Isaac, and Jackie all learned about the unkind history of the Gladers from The Book of Newt and tall tales from Old Man Frypan, but when a rusty old boat shows up one day with a woman bearing dark news of the mainland—everything changes..

The Godhead Complex

James Dashner

After a devastating discovery, Isaac and Sadina are forced to split up. Minho holds the rest of the group together, but it's his beliefs that are slowly falling apart.

In Alaska, The Godhead and the sacred site of the Maze face something that no generation of Pilgrims before them have ever witnessed. Beliefs will change, futures will be rewritten, and not even the Godhead knows what will happen next.

Crank Palace

James Dashner

Newt has been to hell and back with his friends. The Glade. The Maze. The Scorch. But now he has a burden that can't be shared with Thomas and the others—the Flare. And Newt can't bear the thought of his friends watching him descend into madness as he succumbs to the virus. Taking place during the latter events of The Death Cure, Crank Palace tells the story of Newt like never before, from inside his own mind, as he searches for meaning in a life gone horribly wrong.

The House of Tongues

James Dashner

David Player has spent 30 years trying to forget the traumas of his childhood. The threats, the kidnappings, the murders. The imagined curses of a people born centuries earlier, passed from father to son, mother to daughter, generation to generation. Its climax came in a monster of a man, one of the most notorious serial killers the nation has ever seen: Pee Wee Gaskins.

All About... Series

A series for inquisitive young readers

5.31 x 7.63 • 128 pgs • 55+ B&W Illustrations

The award-winning All About . . . Series is designed for readers in grades 4–8 and their parents, teachers, and librarians to enjoy together. Our team of authors, illustrators, editors, designers, and marketers are committed to developing entertaining and educational books that inspire young readers by teaching them about the lives of the world's great explorers, activists, innovators, scientists, personalities, and places. Teachers guides are available at brpressbooks.com/all-about-teachers-guides/.

Featured Authors

A'Leia Bundles is the author of the biography on Madam C. J. Walker, On Her Own Ground, which was recently adapted into the Netflix limited series Self Made. Bundles is on the board of several libraries and the Indiana Historical Society as well. She is the great-great-granddaughter of Madam C. J. Walker and lives in Washington, D. C.

Jorge Iber is a history professor and associate dean at Texas Tech University in Lubbock, Texas. He is a graduate of the University of Utah. Over the past ten years, he has written and published widely on the role of Latinx people in US sports history. He is the series editor for the Sports in the American West series at Texas Tech University Press.

Leonard M. Adkins has hiked more than 19,000 miles. Almost every hiking season finds him on some new adventure. He has thru-hiked the full length of the Appalachian Trail five times and authored more than a dozen books on hiking, wildflowers, and the Appalachian Trail. He was honored with a Lowell Thomas Travel Journalism Award.
