DARE TO DREAM

APRIL 2026

HOW AT 70 I RAN THE MARATHON IN UNDER THREE HOURS

Dare to Dream is the inspiring memoir of Mike Sheridan, a UK and world record-breaker in long-distance running with a unique approach to the marathon. For Mike, age is just a number, and anything is possible for the older athlete.

This is the complete story of Mike's illustrious career. He candidly shares his own experiences with the reader—all of his ups and downs, from a childhood spent in the endurance running hotbed of Kenya and an off-putting experience with cross-country running in England to becoming one of the most decorated masters of marathon running. He was the first UK man over 70 to run a marathon in under three hours, and he also shares here his training methods for older runners.

Mike's story of perseverance and success is one that is sure to inspire runners of all ages.

BRIAN GARDNER is a graduate in English Literature and a former athlete. He qualified with distinction in proofreading and copy editing from the College of Media and Publishing in 2022. He has also published No Cross-Country for Old Men and Enigma on Track. He resides in Wiltshire.

A bold and audaciously ambitious runner, MIKE SHERIDAN embraced the grind tirelessly, year in and year out, as he straddled the fine red line of intense training that it takes to become one of the world's best marathoners. Through every injury and setback, Mike got the work done, never complaining, always with his characteristic forward vision and his unshakable conviction that the impossible was only impossible until it had been conquered. This dogged belief in his own ability is what forged Mike Sheridan into a first-class athlete and, ultimately, a world record holder. He resides in Hampshire.
